The Family Tree Center

Billings Metro VISTA Project served with The Family Tree center in the creation of a new Board of Directors for PCAMT; recruitment of affiliate organizations; mapping of statewide health / mental health services; fundraising and grant writing; and development and implementation of awareness activities. Because of their impact, Prevent Child Abuse Montana has improved their outreach and organization, allowing them to better serve families across Montana. Their efforts in outreach and program development / delivery successfully aided with the provision of resources across the state, assisting Montana residents in receiving the resources necessary to combat child abuse.
